

A Restoring Eden speaking tour

Ankle-Deep in reality ...

A first-hand account of the real impacts of climate change upon the land, ecosystems, families, churches and the vulnerable communities of Africa .

Sara Kaweesa is based in Kampala Uganda, where she leads A-Rocha Uganda Initiative (ARUI), a Christian conservation organization. Sara earned a Masters of Science in Forestry in Vienna, Austria and holds certificates in climate change from outstanding agencies such as Tearfund, UNEP, Oxfam GB, IIED, IPC Denmark and a host of others. Sara travels throughout Uganda and Africa, taking the message of creation stewardship to Bible colleges, pastors, elders, church congregations and to local communities in both rural and urban settings. Sara is a lay pastor at the Makerere Full Gospel Church where she serves in the ladies ministry.
