

Resources for Muslim students

at the University of Dayton

Join the Muslim Student Association, a student group which promotes and develops cultural diversity and awareness of Muslims and Islam and promotes understanding and tolerance on the UD campus. The group also supports the spiritual development of its members in a university environment. For information, visit <http://campus.udayton.edu/~msa/>

Law students at the University of Dayton may join the Muslim Law Student Association through UD's School of Law. Visit <http://law.udayton.edu/> and select "News and Events" for more information.

Faith & Religious Resources on campus

The University of Dayton is committed to the spiritual and religious development of all students regardless of their religion. The University's Campus Ministry office can provide more information for students wishing to continue their faith growth while at the University. Visit the Campus Ministry at <http://ministry.udayton.edu/> or contact the office at (937) 229-3339 or UDCM@notes.udayton.edu.

A prayer room on the ground floor of Alumni Hall, located on UD's campus, has been designated for use by Muslim students and faculty who may use it for prayer throughout the day. Jum'ah, or Friday prayer, is held every Friday at 1:00 pm in the prayer room.
